SWN Monitor

- Monitor water usage and health of assets in the smart water network installation site across aggregations.

- Get notified about events and anomolies in the water network like leaks and when acceptable water quality is breached.

- Get useful predictions like the amount of water needed for the next day and when to water the garden.

- Track the resolution of problems in the water network by field personnal.
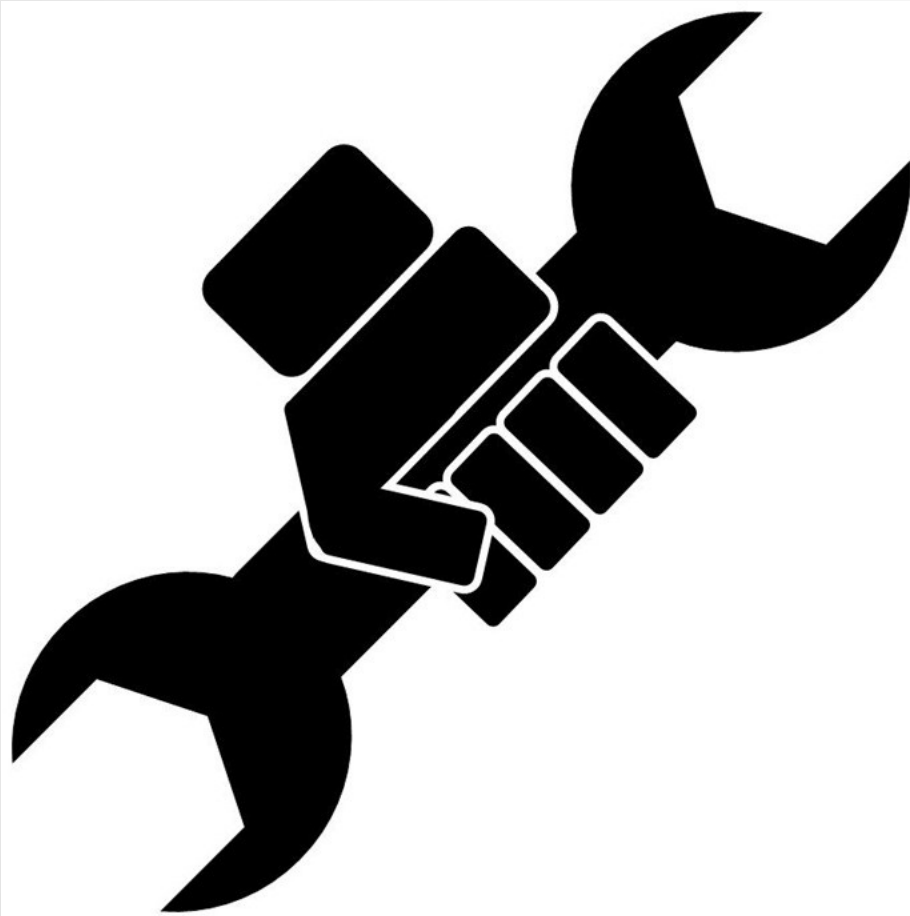

- Installation specific.

Reports

Notifications

SWN Notifier

- Provides notifications about concerned events in the smart water networks for resolution

- Provides mechanisms to update status about the same.

- Provides map based location information about the problem in the smart water network.